

Roles and responsibilities

Carl Beer, Chief Executive

Carl Beer is responsible for providing strategic direction for MRWA services and delivery and its elected members, ensuring both staff and resources are in place to deliver the Authority's vision, aims and objectives.

Managing the delivery of the Authority's priorities through efficient internal management and developing partnerships with District Councils and other partners, are a key part of his role.

The Chief Executive ensures effective and prompt response to national and local initiatives for service change and improvement, ensuring value for money and transparency and is an ambassador for the Authority locally, regionally and nationally.

The Chief Executive is the key contact and liaison for the Chairperson and members of the Authority and manages an overall staff body of 35.
